we can call you back.

Northern Territory Legal Aid Commission

The Duty Lawyer can help with:

- Legal advice & information
- Completing simple forms
- Seeking adjournments
- Simple negotiations with the other party
- Drafting consent orders
- Referrals to other services
- Urgent recovery of children & injunctions
- Representing you in Court on the day

The service is available for people whose family law case is in the Federal Circuit Court in Darwin or Alice Springs on that day and who do not have a lawyer. It is only available on days that the Court has a duty list. If possible, it is best to contact the NT Legal Aid Commission for a FREE legal advice appointment before the day your case is in Court by calling:
