

Northern Territory Legal Aid Commission

Guide for Stakeholders

COVID-19 Safety Plan in place

Safety Plan prioritises the well being of employees, clients and the community .

limited face to face services

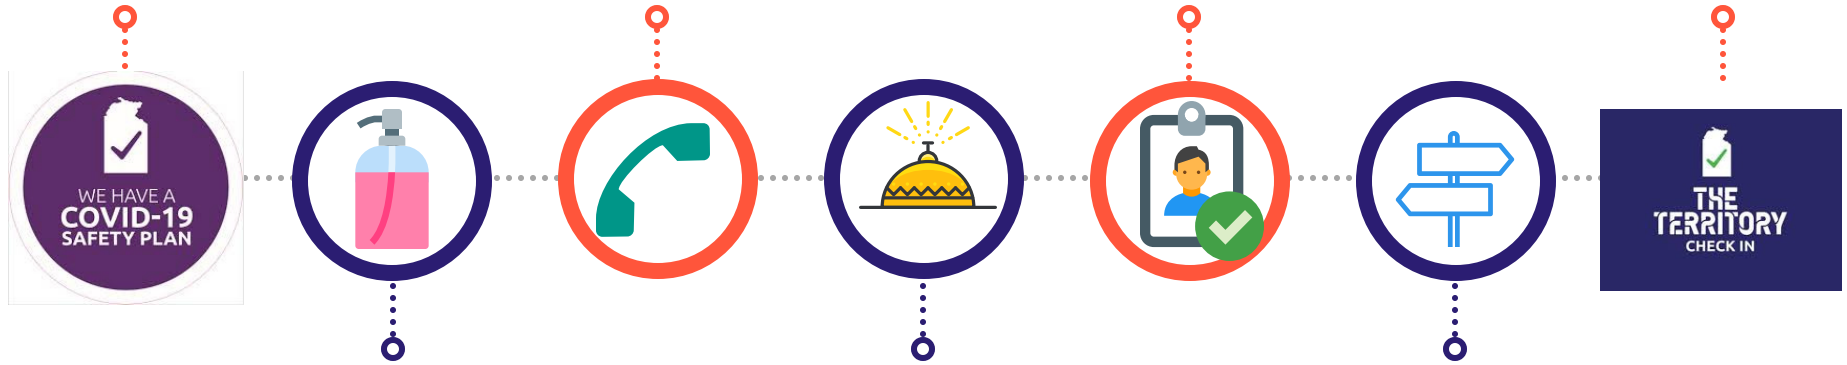

Services continue to be offered by phone or other platform Face to face service may be provided if safe and necessary build on what we learned

Improve on changes virtual service delivery electronic processes working from home

continue safe practices

Keep up to date with safe practices a gradual return to the workplace principles of physical distancing and hygiene principles guide decision making limited access to front counters

Safely allow a limited number of people to attend front counters and waiting rooms safely provide remote services

Planning following safe principles in line with court schedule and community requirements